

Sinclair
Broadcasting has decided to force
their stations to
air an slanderous
anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election.

This is a clear
example of the dangers of media
consolidation and an abuse of Sinclair's
public license.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules and
hold media
corporations to the terms of their licenses. They show
why the license
renewal process
needs to involve
more than a returned postcard. Thank you for your attention.
